

I support XM radio's broadcast of instant traffic & weather. Since most americans in major cities spent a lot of time in their vehicle traveling back and forth to work, this provides an essential means of staying inform of changing conditions locally and in other cities if you are travelling out of town. Good work XM radio.